

NORTHERN CALIFORNIA GEOLOGICAL SOCIETY

2022–2023

RICHARD CHAMBERS MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIPS

The Northern California Geological Society is pleased to announce the availability of the Richard Chambers Memorial Scholarships to help support graduate-level student research in geology or related fields. The NCGS anticipates awarding two scholarships.

$ 1,500 Scholarships will be awarded to students working toward their graduate degree

These scholarships will be awarded competitively, based upon our review of submitted summaries of proposed research. Funds are intended to support field and laboratory components of research programs. The research should be scheduled for completion during the 2022–2023 calendar years. Winners are invited to present their research at a regular NCGS evening meeting in Orinda, California.

Funding priority for these scholarships is directed to research focused on topics in general geology, geologic mapping, structural geology, economic geology, engineering geology, environmental geology, geophysics, stratigraphy, paleontology or paleoecology in northern California or the states adjoining northern California.

Application Procedure:

Candidates may apply by forwarding a signed cover letter on University or Department letterhead stationery requesting the award, accompanied by a brief summary (no more than 2 pages) of their proposed research. The cover letter should include the project's title, why the proposed research may be relevant, and how the funds would be used. In addition, the cover letter must include the candidate's contact information (both departmental and home) email and postal mailing addresses and telephone numbers). The bottom of the candidates cover letter must also bear this note (filled out):

Degree Program: _____, Approved by: _____(print): _____

Title: _____, Telephone: _____, e-mail address: _____, and date: _____

with the printed name and signature of the department chair or thesis advisor and their title, telephone and e-mail address. No other application form is required. Electronic letters and proposals will not be accepted.

Please submit your letter and proposal by U.S. Mail, postmarked no later than December 3, 2022, to:
